WICHITA, KANSAS
VOLUME 10

the TRAIL

FOREWORD

THE DIFFICULTY of a confusing math problem, the outlandish hair styles, the athletic contests, the laughter, hardships, sweat and strain, the feeling of accomplishment after a task well done—these things and many more construct West High.

A shell in 1953, West has grown in ten years to be the home of nearly 1700 happy and industrious people. Through the industry of its students and faculty members, West is no longer just a building, but a living and vital part of our lives. Without the students and faculty West would again return to a skeleton. So it is with a spider web. Without the spider the web is nothing, but with the industry of the spider, the web grows and continues to grow.

In this, the 1963 Trail, we have tried to assemble the strands of the web which have been spun through the last nine months, but there is a resemblance between this past school year and each school year which preceded it. Through the use of the spider's web, which builds only by time and energy, this year's Trail staff wishes for you, the reader, to think back to the ways that West has grown through your time and energy.

Not a student or teacher at West is unfamiliar with (1) the outside of the building from the gym entrance, (2) the loneliness of D corridor during class, (3) the illuminated auditorium entrance.

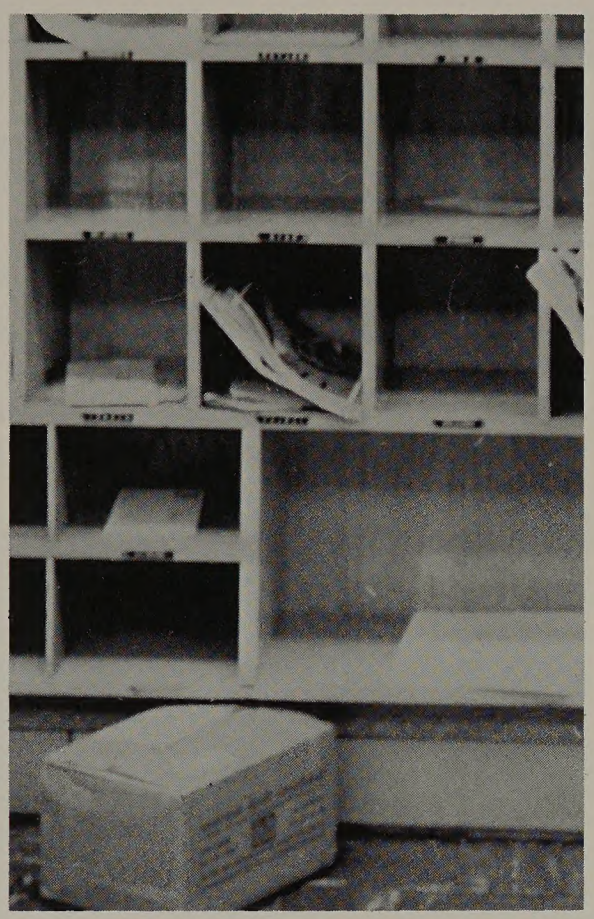
A MAN TO REMEMBER

"For love and beauty and delight,
There is no death nor change."

WEST'S SECOND principal, Glen K. Hamilton, was a man of strong principles and firm beliefs.

Mr. Hamilton, believing that a principal's work is never done, was not only a good leader of our school, but a friend to all as well.

Although he is now gone, Mr. Hamilton left for West High a love for mankind, various beauties of life as expressed through his appreciation for music, and the delight of true achievement.



Mailboxes for teachers may be emptied for a short time, but never for very long.

Principal

VACANCY TERMINATES

JANUARY 28, 1963, marked the beginning of a challenging responsibility for Dr. Edwin J. Friesen as he assumed the West High School principalship which had been vacated through the untimely death of former principal Glen K. Hamilton.

After obtaining his Bachelor of Science degree from Emporia State Teachers College in 1938 and his Doctorate in Education from Kansas University in 1960, Dr. Friesen had served as principal of Roosevelt and Truesdell Intermediates, as well as several other schools in Kansas, before coming to West.

He finds much enjoyment in music, reading, athletic events, and outdoor activities such as gardening. He is often seen at plays, musical programs, and other extra-curricular presentations. Sharing with others his ideas and projects, Dr. Friesen's interest in school functions and achievements has gained for him a lasting impression and place in the home of the Pioneers.

DORSEY AIDS GROUPS

AIDING IN the leadership of West's administration is Wilbur C. Dorsey, assistant principal. Entering our school in 1956, Mr. Dorsey undertook the responsibility of co-ordination of activities, shifting to his present position the following year.

A long list involves the duties of assistant principal, beginning with all extra-curricular activities, assigning lockers, overseeing student activities, and ending with a host of others. Also lending a hand in student disciplinary actions, Mr. Dorsey feels a responsibility to help students prepare for adulthood through knowledge in a world covering every aspect of life.

DYE SEES REWARDS

IN 1953 James T. Dye became a member of the West High faculty to head the Business Department. At that time, little did he realize that beginning with the year 1958 his duties would enlarge to those of vice principal. Since assuming this position, Mr. Dye's work has led him to such tasks as disciplinary measures, student enrollment co-ordination, school rules and regulations, and assuming the position of acting principal for one semester.

Working with West's students for a period of nine years, Mr. Dye feels that the most rewarding part of his work comes with "seeing students develop, mature, and take their places after high school graduation in college life, job, and community living."

TEACHERS TEACH FOR STUDENTS

WHO:
—hears the constant throb of searching goals?
—guides the wanderer's aim as the search unfolds?
—grips a heart's concern with spurring advice?
—probes the problem to make it concise?
—is the growing vertebrae of the world?
—sets thoughts aflame with ideas unfurled?
—sprinkles discipline through the shades of equality?
—makes a decision through wisdom and morality?
—compiles the mind and heart into one?
—continues searching when school hours are done?
Who, but the teacher.

WITHIN THE word "teacher" lies the future through the past. Behind the door of knowledge there is always an instructor pushing us on. Before the word "achievement" a teacher can be found. Between the pages of study, a personality continues to help.

While we are in our course of study, we as students realize the importance of an individual who spends extra working hours for the purpose of our youth.

The annual home economics open house gives teachers an opportunity for a companionable break.

Boys' Foods presents boys with a chance to learn the culinary trade.

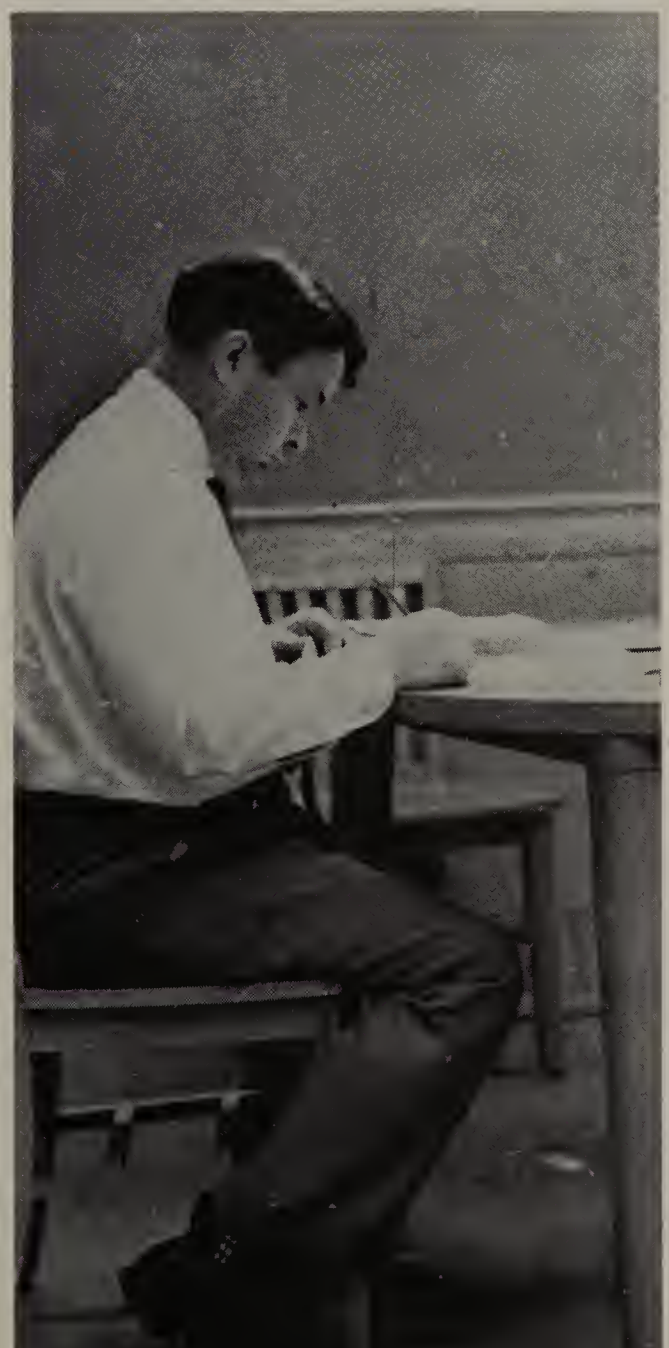
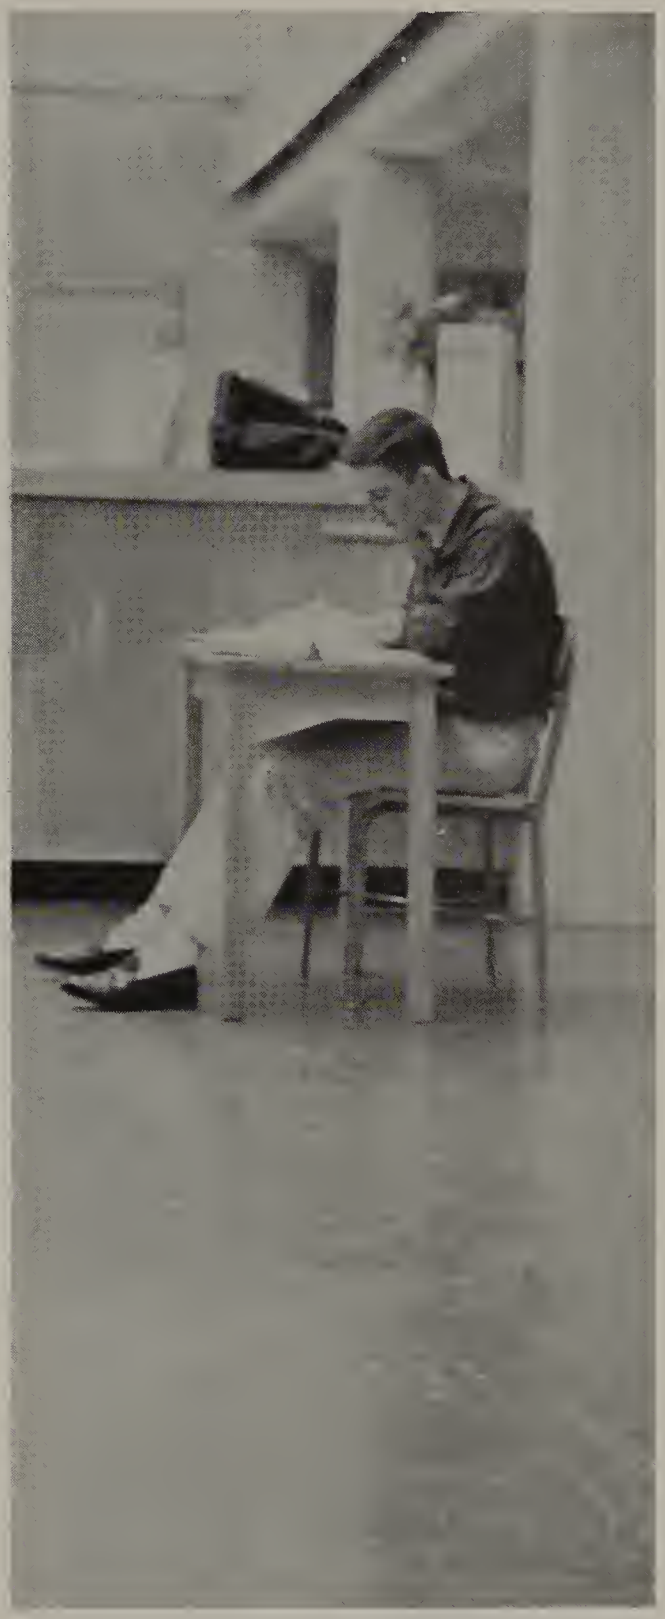
INSTRUCTORS SET GUIDING EXAMPLES

Giving careful attention to foreign language tapes is necessary in order to benefit from the language lab facilities.



An office proctor presents a lonely figure as he studies in a seemingly empty office.



"A teacher's work is never done" shows as many faculty members use the convenience of the library.

SERVICES MAINTAIN WEST FACILITIES

THE OPERATION of a school the size of West necessitates the function of several units of service. Keeping halls, classrooms, and the auditorium ready for use occupies a main portion of a custodian's day. While the engineers control the school's facilities, the cafeteria staff is busy preparing each day's school lunch. Maintaining quiet and a well-stocked library, in addition to helping students, keeps the three librarians busy.

FUTURE TEACHERS PLAN CAREERS

PERFORMING countless tasks and keeping track of innumerable forms, the women of the office staff insure a smoothly running school. For without complete accomplishment of the duties assigned to them, West's students, teachers, and administrators would not be able to go about their daily tasks with their present success and efficiency.

THE GOAL of the Future Teachers Club is to help its members determine if they wish to make teaching their career. As its special projects, the club plans an annual spring picnic, visits Wichita University, and travels to Kansas State University in Manhattan.

COUNSELORS GIVE HELP

NOT ONLY are the West High counselors busy advising students, but an enormous amount of their time is devoted to leading each individual through his web of goals. Aiding in introducing new students to high school life is Victor Wilmoth, sophomore counselor. Miss Clarice Beaver encourages juniors to continue their plans for the future, while Harold Froning guides busy seniors out of their high school maze into a new and colorful world of their own.

FACULTY AIDS SHOW IN MANY WAYS

(1) Even a crowded corridor doesn't prevent a student from acquiring a faculty member's aid. (2) Studious attention is given during a math lecture concerning a new problem solution.

(1) Timed tests help build speed and accuracy in typing. (2) Receiving a teacher's help after a difficult test often means more than hours of studying. (3) In order to have a garment fit correctly, careful measurement must be done before cutting.

BAND PERFORMS SHOWS

FULFILLING THE prime function of a performing company, the West High Band exhibited dynamic sounds throughout the year in various appearances and concerts. The band began the year by putting on football half-time shows. During basketball season a Pep Band played. The group terminated the year by entertaining at the Pioneer Picnic.

VOCALISTS PROMOTE MUSIC WITH VARIETY

"All things shall perish from under the sky.
Music alone shall live, never to die."

WEST HIGH'S music department has shown an increase through the ten years of its existence. Besides the still remaining mixed Choir, the sophomore girls' and boys' Glee Clubs, Mixed Chorus, and two ensembles, the department also included a Girls' Choir in 1953.

Promoting the theme that music shall never die, the West High Choir has sung at various places, including caroling at the Board of Education office and performing at Kansas State University in Manhattan on their annual choir trip.

From the Choir, the two select groups of Hi-Larks, an ensemble of all girls, and Westerners, a mixed ensemble, is chosen upon the basis of tryouts every spring.

Also stimulating the art of music, the sophomore Glee Clubs and Mixed Chorus have appeared at music programs put on at West, as well as singing for other groups outside of school. West's music department has brought forth, in cooperation with other departments in school, two musical productions, "Oklahoma" and this year's presentation of "Carousel."

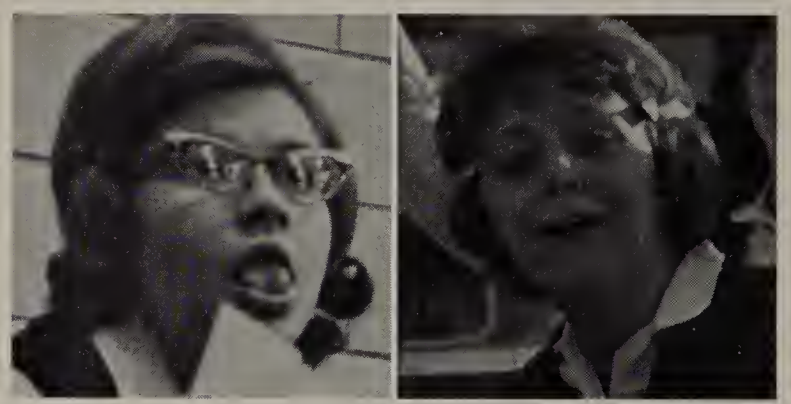
sTUDENT LIFE



Faces portray West in the classroom and all extra-curricular functions. To feel the impact of West, one has only to join with the laughter, sadness, and curiosity of energetic Pioneers as they live through the hours of their SCHOOL LIFE.

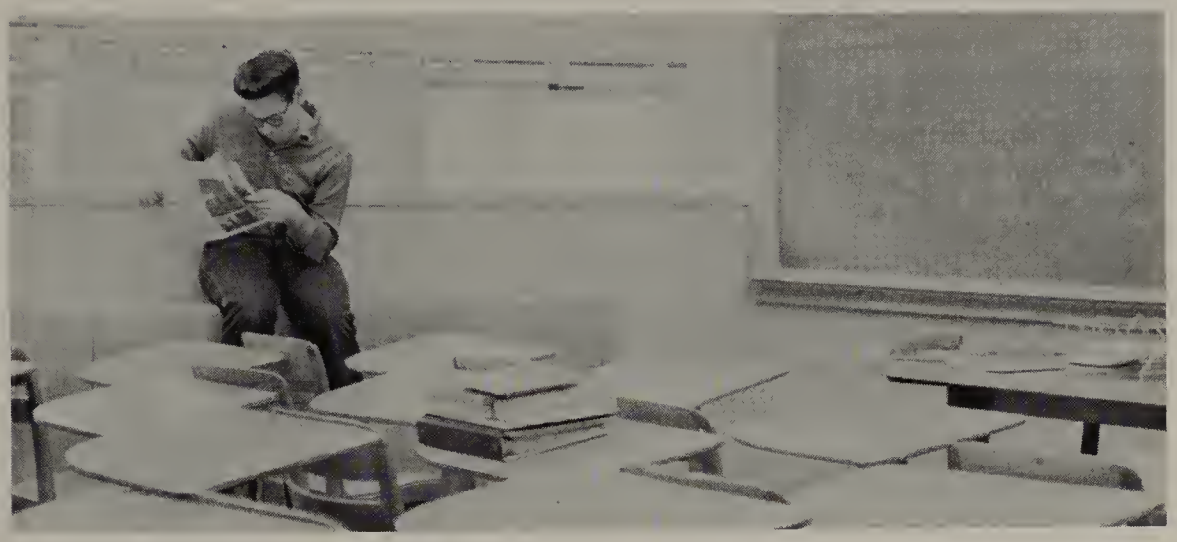
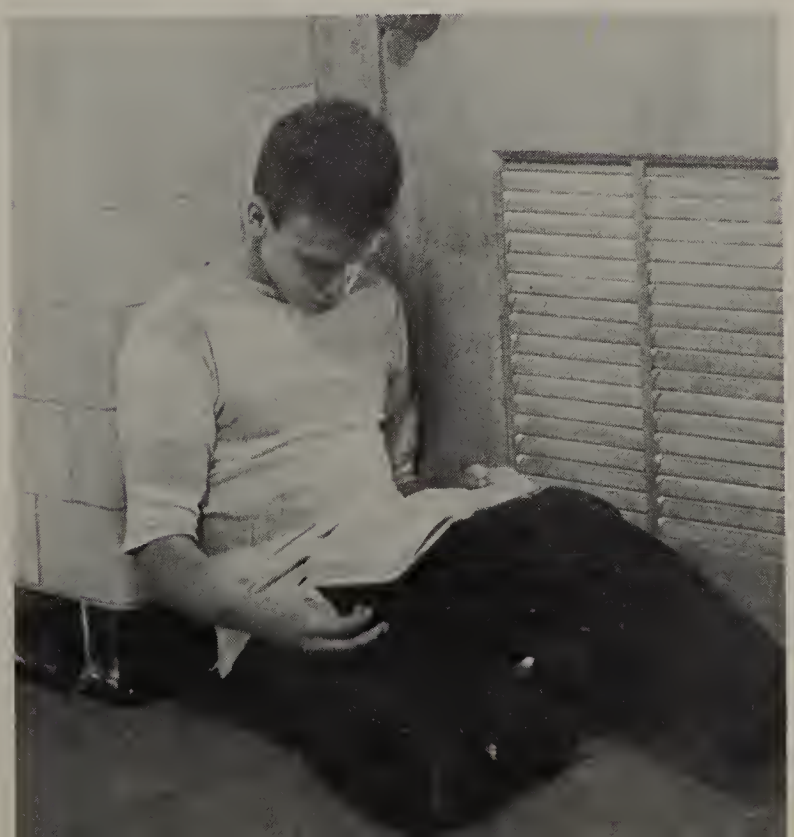
LEARNING REFLECTS STUDY



Places for study vary among West High students. From doorways, to radiators, to the cafeteria, the Pioneers are interested in gaining knowledge.



A close inspection makes for a well-finished product.

"Somebody had better hold the ladder steady."

STUDENTS WORRY, PLAN TOGETHER

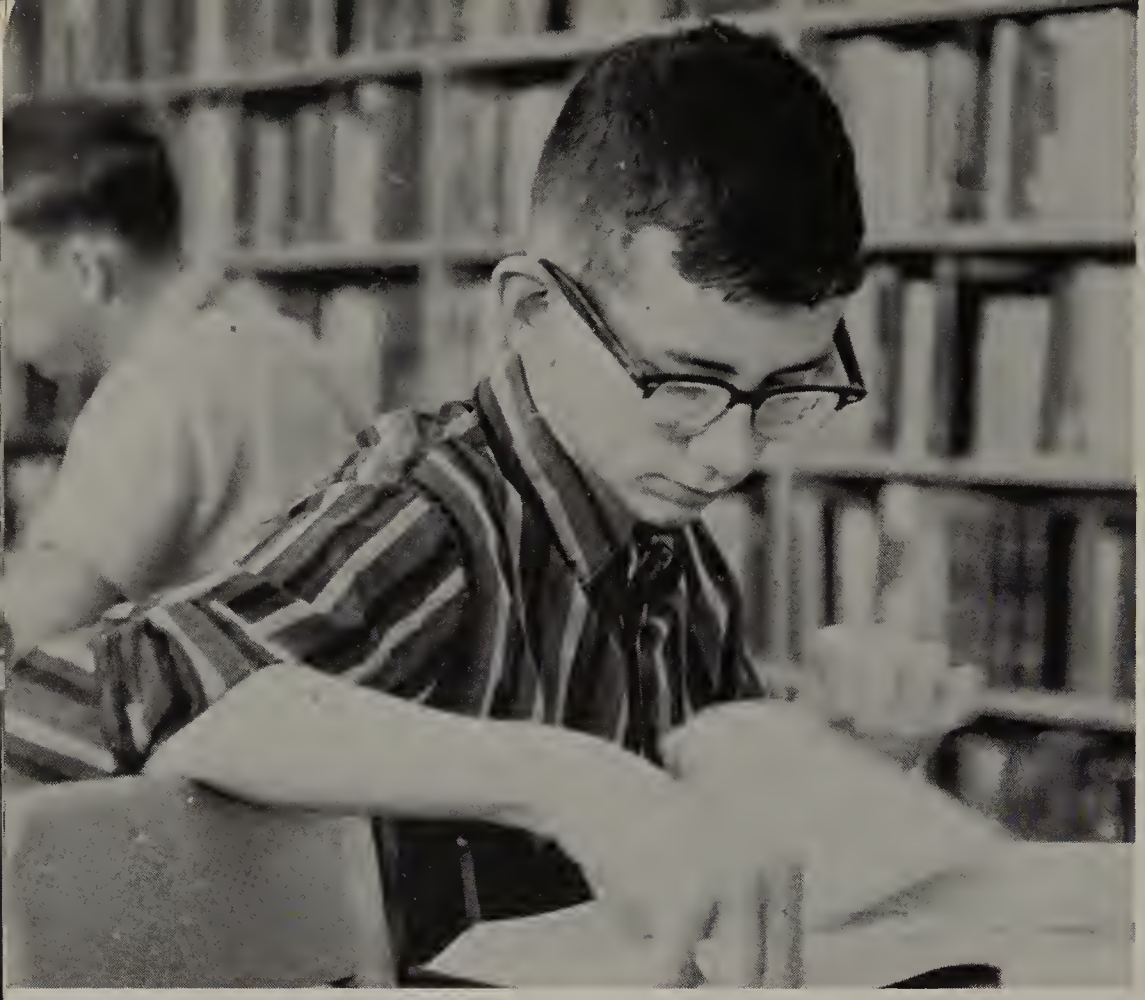
"Mass production must continue, so cut those cans!"

To fold crepe paper correctly requires much skill and meditation.

All types of supervision and no work surprisingly provide a completed project.

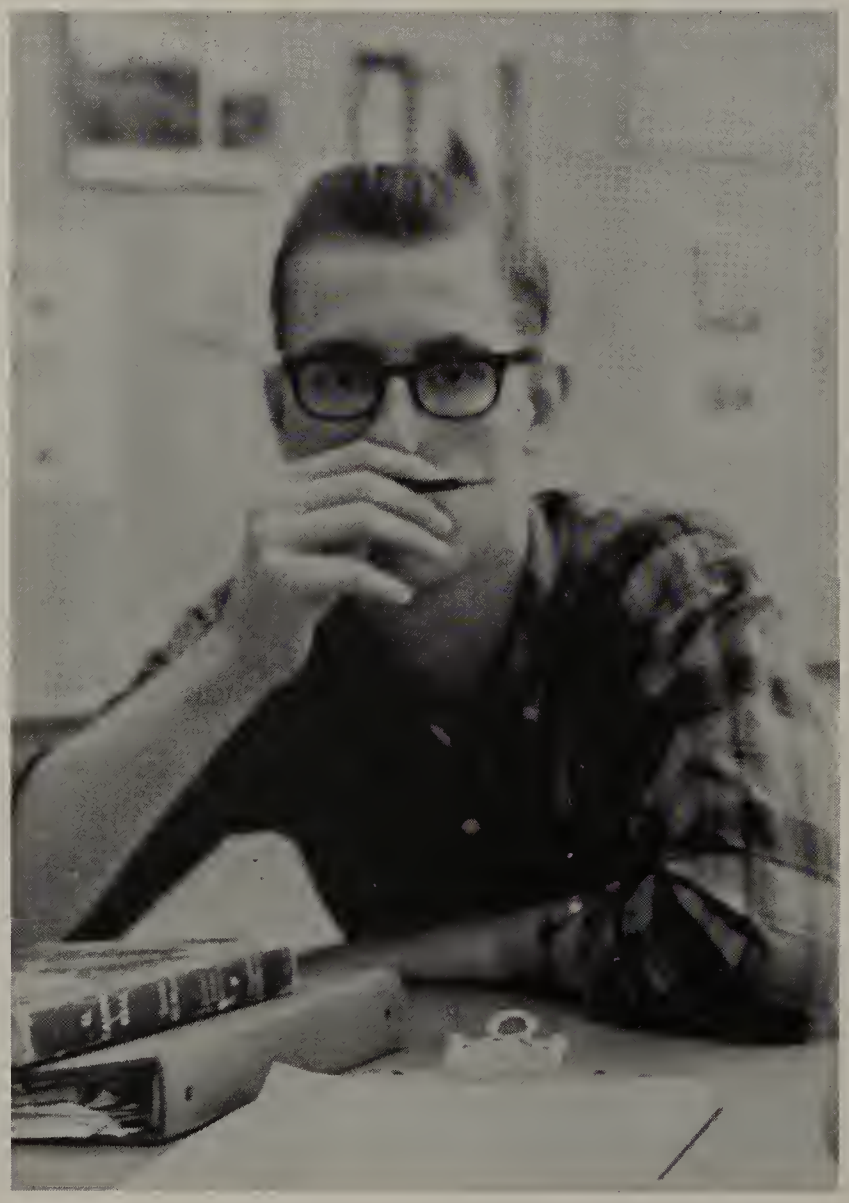
"Say, what do I do with this crepe paper?"

"Let's see, I must pick up my dress before the dance tonight."



The library provides a quiet atmosphere for those engrossed in studies.

Deep contemplation brings forth pencil chewing.



Determination to study is conducive to unusual sitting positions.

Every class has a touch of boredom.

Reading in an empty classroom creates an air of solitude.

SOLITUDE INVADES CLASSROOMS

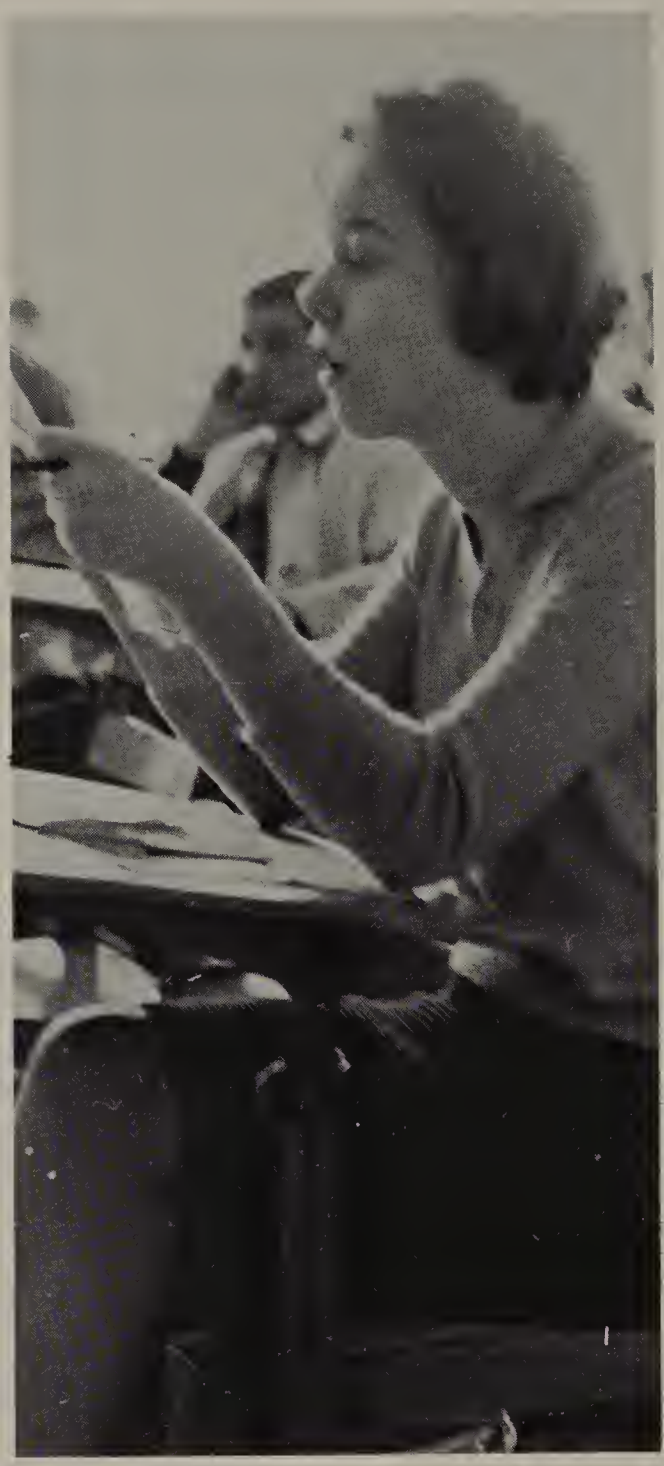
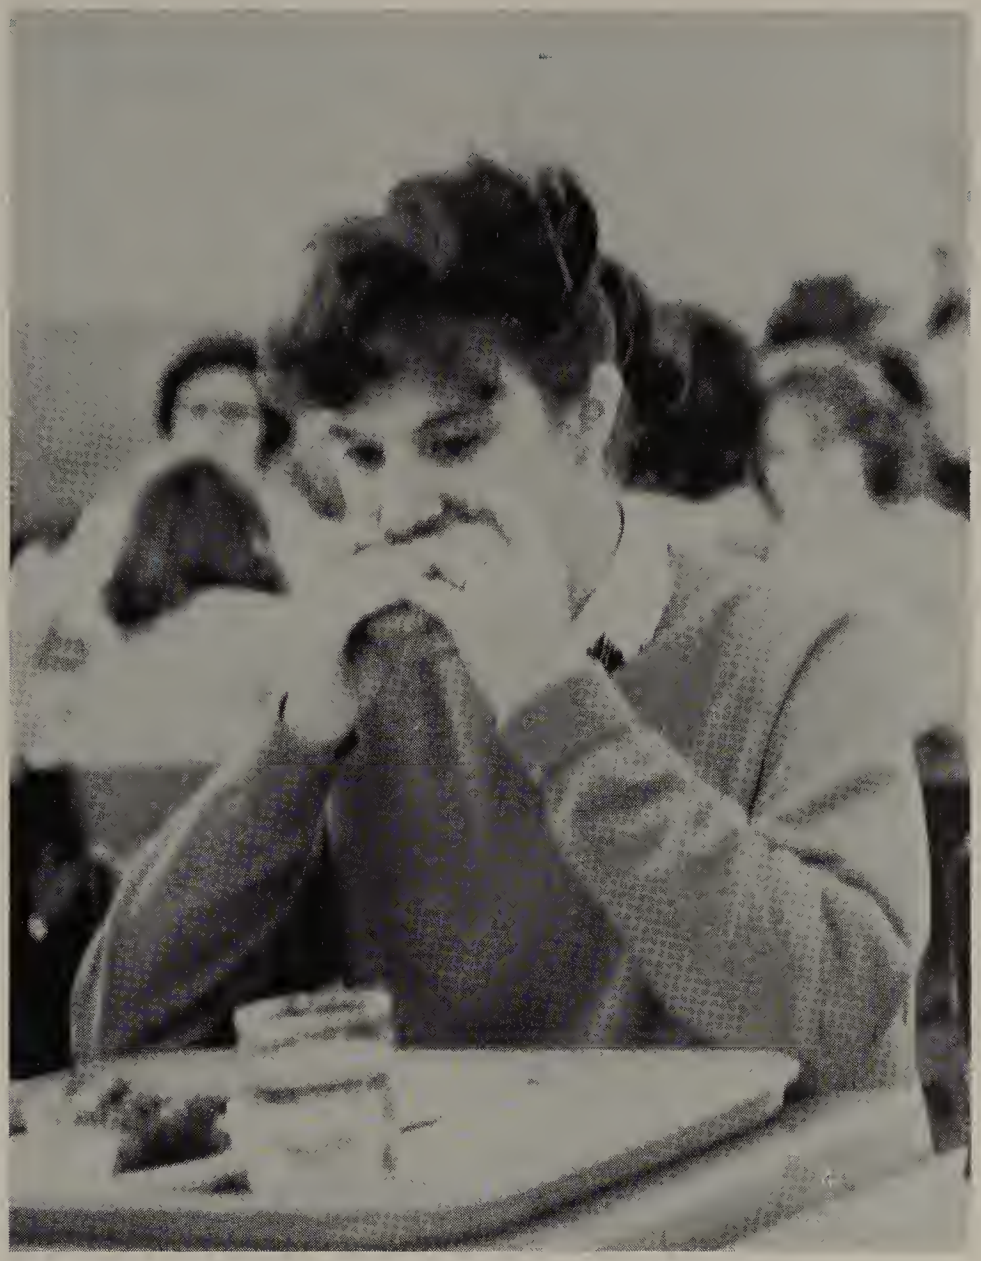
ACTIVITIES VARY



(1) Concentration prevails as a study hall student eyes her notes. (2) Daydreaming is always an important part in any school day. (3) A variety of toys is donated during the annual "Toys for Tots" campaign. (4) Judging the right sized bite develops careful eating habits. (5) Pep Club members exhibit enthusiasm as they swing their legs with the beat of the music.



After his coronation, King Mickey Mosier devotes his attention to opening his gift.

Jerree Johnson holds the dozen red roses presented to her after she was crowned queen of "Football Frolic."

'FOOTBALL FROLIC' CONCLUDES SEASON

CLIMAXING THE football season, the annual football dance, "Football Frolic," was held November 10 in West's cafeteria. Crowned through the votes of the student body were King Mickey Mosier and Queen Jerree Johnson.

Couples rest between dances at tables decorated with miniature maroon and gold pompoms.

400 SEE 'MISS SANTA'

JAN GROBE, "Miss Santa of 1962," reigned over the annual Christmas Dance, "Silver Bells." Four hundred students and faculty members danced to the music of Stan Elliott's Orchestra at the December 15 event.

Decorating the cafeteria was a mammoth silver bell measuring five feet in height and fourteen feet in circumference.

In addition to Jan, who was selected as "Miss Santa" by a panel of judges after an initial student body nomination and election, Cheryl Brown, Pat Blue, Freda Thomas, and Dana Fankhauser served as attendants.

Miss Santa candidates—Cheryl Brown, Pat Blue, Jan Grobe, Freda Thomas, and Dana Fankhauser—anxiously await announcement of the winner.

Senior Class President Terry Brandon introduces three "lovely" ladies—Kim Westerlund, Ron Steventon, and Pat Schetrompf.

A silver bell, carrying out the theme of the Christmas dance, towers over dancers from the ceiling of the cafeteria.

'CAROUSEL' SCORES HIT

BRIDGING THE scope and understanding of high school drama, each member of the National Thespian Society represents 100 hours of work and experience. Every year the Thespians honor their fellow members by participating in an honor awards banquet and giving recognition to the outstanding performers of the year.

In the largest production of the year Thespians combined their talents with those of the music, art, and physical education departments to present the smash-hit Broadway musical, "Carousel."

This second musical production in West's 10-year history concerned the carnival barker, Billy Bigelow, and Julie, a young employee of Bascombe's Mill. After a stormy life with Julie, Billy is accidentally killed just before the birth of his daughter Louise. However, he is allowed to return to earth for Louise's graduation, and through his actions that day he wins for himself a place in heaven.

Such musical favorites as "Mr. Snow," "June Is Bustin' Out All Over," and "You'll Never Walk Alone" left a near-capacity audience for a series of three night shows appreciative of West High talents.

(1) Jigger attempts to sneak off to the woods with Carrie. (2) Julie and Billy discover love through their first kiss. (3) Nettie reflects her enthusiasm for the clambake as she sings "June Is Bustin' Out All Over." (4) Jigger forcingly expresses his feelings for Carrie. (5) Billy returns to earth during Louise's graduation.

Ester prepares to swallow a chicken heart so she can marry the next man she meets.

GIRLS BRING TROUBLE

ST. LOUIS and the world's fair provided a colorful setting for the first dramatic production of the year. When Mr. Smith is transferred to New York just at the time when the World's Fair is about to open, no end of trouble arises for the men in the story. Four boisterous daughters do everything from swallowing chicken hearts to dropping water bags from second story windows.

STUCO REPRESENTS

STUDENT COUNCIL, a student-elected unit, extends the principles of democracy throughout school. A few of the projects of this organization are teas for honor roll students, senior pictures in 'A' corridor, "Toys for Tots" campaign, and the annual decorating of the school Christmas tree.

OFFICERS OF Student Council are (1) T. Blake, secretary, (2) J. Regier, treasurer, and (3) S. Clopton, vice president, and J. Walker, president.

(4) Members of Stu-co decorate the Christmas tree in the lobby. (5) Class officers are sworn in by Keith Sanborn during Installation assembly.

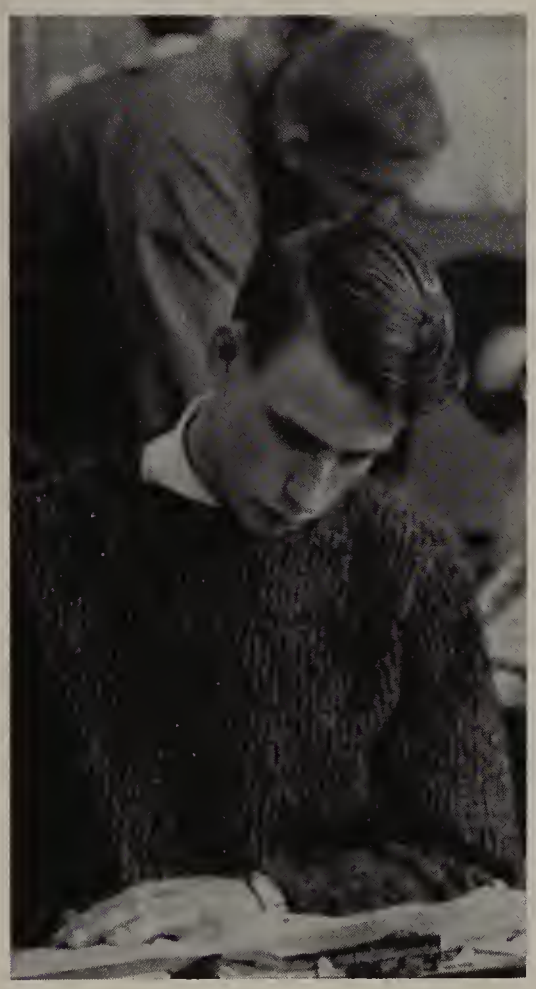
WEST WORD BECOMES A WEEKLY



Intent concentration is necessary to write a story.

Linda Peebles, first semester staff editor, gives pointers to Cliff Tarpy and Dee Anna Kowalski, second semester editors.

RELAYING SCHOOL news and happenings to the student body through printed form was the responsibility of this year's West Word staffs.

The first semester staff covered such items as the Football and Christmas dances, fall and winter plays and sports. Second semester the two staffs undertook the challenge of issuing a weekly publication, the first in West's history.

CLUBS FURTHER STANDARDS

GROWING IN friendship with peoples of all races, nationalities and beliefs through the knowledge and love of God has been the objective of Y-Teens since their club's origin in 1953.

GUIDING YOUNG men through high ideals and Christian beliefs, Hi-Y members stimulate personal standards. Among the many activities of the club are the basketball team, which competes with other high school Hi-Y teams, and the city-wide Hi-Y dance.

OFFICE PRACTICE trains members in the fundamentals of business so that they can meet the growing demands for efficient office workers. Members escorted their employers to dinner in partial repayment for their $16,000 total earnings.

WEST FORESEEN AS 'NO THREAT'

Dan Reep (22) is squeezed between two Kapaun Crusaders for a short but important gain.

AT THE END of the first two games in which the Pioneers fell under the weight of Ark City and East, it looked as though the 1962 football squad was headed toward a losing season. However, due to desire and pride, the Pioneers left the third contest as victors over the Crusaders of Kapaun.

The next week the Southeast Buffaloes met the Pioneers on a muddy battlefield where the two teams fought to a tie. When the never-say-die Pioneers moved to Hutchinson for their next contest, they captured a second victory of the still-young season. Following the annual pep rally, the students of West marched to Lawrence Stadium to watch the South High Colonels be defeated by the enthusiastic West team.

In the next three games the Pioneers proved that they really were mighty. Newton's Railroaders were "knocked off their track."

Jim Brown (32) attempts to fight off five Kapaun tacklers as Mickey Mosier (10)looks on.

BUT PIONEERS BLAZE TO 'BEST'

Jerry Walton mulls over thoughts of the upcoming game while Jim Brown tapes his socks in final preparation.

THREE DAYS LATER West emerged victor over the Wildcats of ElDorado. On a cool, crisp night West met with North to tangle in the last contest of the season. Going into this game the Pioneers had a 5-2-1 record and were tied for third place in the city. However, because the team knew it had to win the game to capture a tie for second place in the City League, the boys went into the game to win, and they did by handing the Redskins a drubbing.

"Best slate in the city" was the password for the Pioneers as they ended their season with a 6-2-1 skein. Since pre-season forecasts said that we would be tough but no threat, the team began the season to prove these predictions false. As can be seen by their record, the team accomplished this feat.

SOPHS CLINCH TIE

BEGINNING THEIR first year in high school football, the sophomores captured a tie for first place in City League play. The only team to defeat the baby Trailblazers was the Aces of East High.

With no experience at hand, the two coaches, Jim McNerney and Sumner Roberts, formed a team which will serve as a nucleus for the future varsity teams of West.

Inspiring coaches, Sumner Roberts and Jim McNerney, lead the baby Pioneers along the trail to another City League championship.

CROSS COUNTRY RETURNS

FOR THE FIRST time in three years, West High was represented by a cross country team. Although the squad lacked a winning ability this season, it gained valuable experience which will help the two-mile runners in future meets. Two seniors and four sophomores made up the squad which was coached by Duane Thomas. The sophomores will return next year to add strength to the newly begun team.

AFTER THE END of the first game, it could plainly be seen that the Pioneers were headed toward a winning season. Because the squad was a team and not five separate players, the boys were able to produce a winning season. Wayne Whitcomb, junior forward, led the Pioneers in scoring and rebounding. Mickey Mosier and Bob Norton, seniors, were a close second. Rounding out the team were juniors J. R. Whedbee and Bill Nath, consistent starters throughout the season. Coach Jim McNerney also had strength in his reserves, Roger McDowell, Ron Setchell, seniors, and Bob Hammond, Phil McNeil, and Jim Brown, juniors. Because of this well-rounded squad, West fans witnessed an overall record of 14 wins and only four losses in season competition.

An East High Ace makes a futile attempt to block Roger McDowell's shot. Wayne Whitcomb (25) looks on.

THE BABY TRAILBLAZERS could not substitute shooting for height to gain a winning season. With only three boys over six feet, the sophomores were out-played in most games because of their inability to get rebounds. Even though they were plagued with "littleness," the Pioneers played to a 4-5 record with many contests being lost in the final seconds of the game.

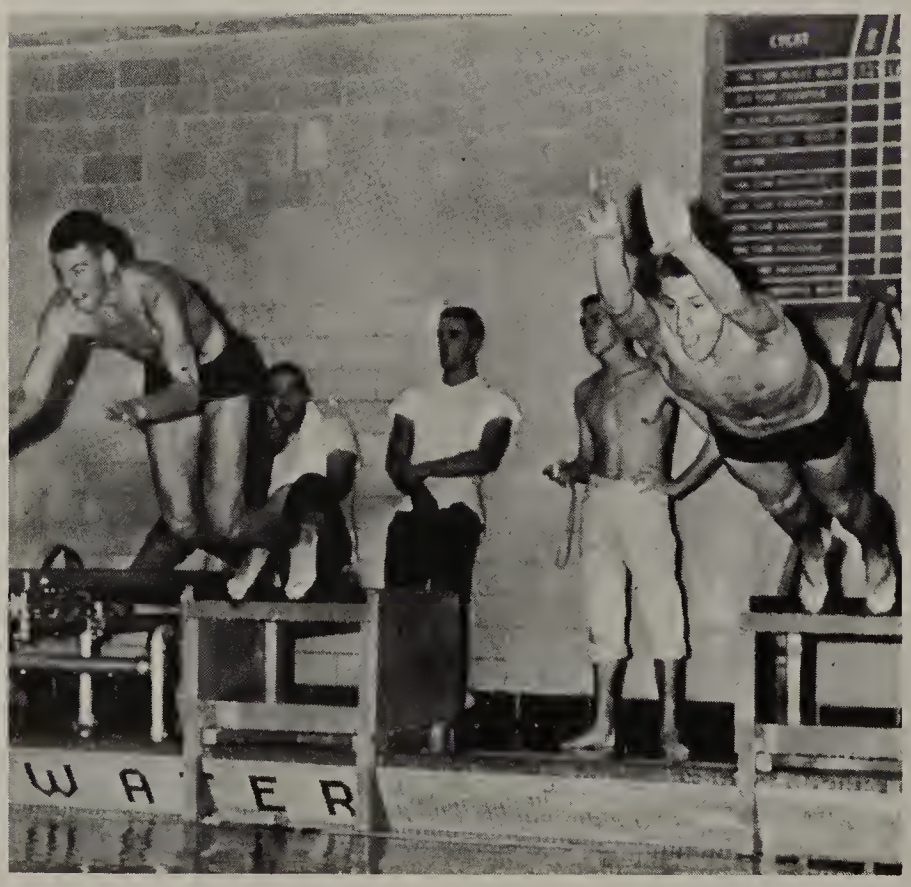
MERMEN CAPTURE THIRD IN CITY LEAGUE

As the starting gun sounds, Frank Hoover and Kenneth Bean leave the starting blocks for a West High victory.



POSTING A six-won, two-lost record for the season, the West mermen captured third place in the City League. Southeast's Buffaloes and East's Blue Aces were the only two opposing schools to outscore the Pioneers. With just five seniors on the team, Coach J. D. Shouse relied mainly on sophomore and junior talent.

For the second year in a row West's 200-yard freestyle relay team, consisting of John Kelly, Dave Maclaskey, Frank Hoover, and Jerry Lancelot, captured fourth place in State competition. Out of a field of 17, West placed ninth in the State meet with a score of seven points.

DUE TO THE inexperience of this year's squad, the team posted an unsuccessful season with a record of no wins and eight losses. The sophomores and juniors gained valuable experience since only two seniors, Rudy Richardson and Brad Stevens, were on the team. Junior Tom Stovey, a veteran from last year, was a consistent first place winner in all the meets and took first in State in free exercise and fourth in tumbling. Rudy Richardson was an asset to the team, constantly placing first or second on the rings and side horse. Brad Stevens obtained many third place honors on the high bar.

Even though the team had a poor season, the boys worked hard and captured a sixth place rating in State. The experience gained by the sophomores and juniors will be of great help to next year's squad.

INEXPERIENCED GRAPPLERS POST 5-3 SEASON

THIS YEAR EDDIE Kriwiel, coach, was forced to turn a group of inexperienced but ambitious boys into a winning wrestling squad. Pre-season forecasts placed West in the underdog position, but the matmen disproved this prediction by qualifying more boys to the Regional meet than any other city team.

Danny Reep, a three year letterman, and Larry Patterson represented West in the State finals, placing second and fifth respectively. After hours of practice, the 1963 grapplers jelled into a team which posted a 5-3 city record and which placed seventh in the Regionals and eleventh in the State.

Under the watchful eyes of the referee, Larry Hudson attempts to keep his opponent on the mat.

PEP CLUB BOASTS 400 MEMBERS

THE PEP CLUB, annually sponsoring an outdoor pep rally, pep assemblies, and a football dance, stimulates spirit and enthusiasm during sports events. This year the enrollment of girls has been the highest during the history of the Pioneer Pep Club. Six senior cheerleaders lead the maroon-uniformed members in cheers.

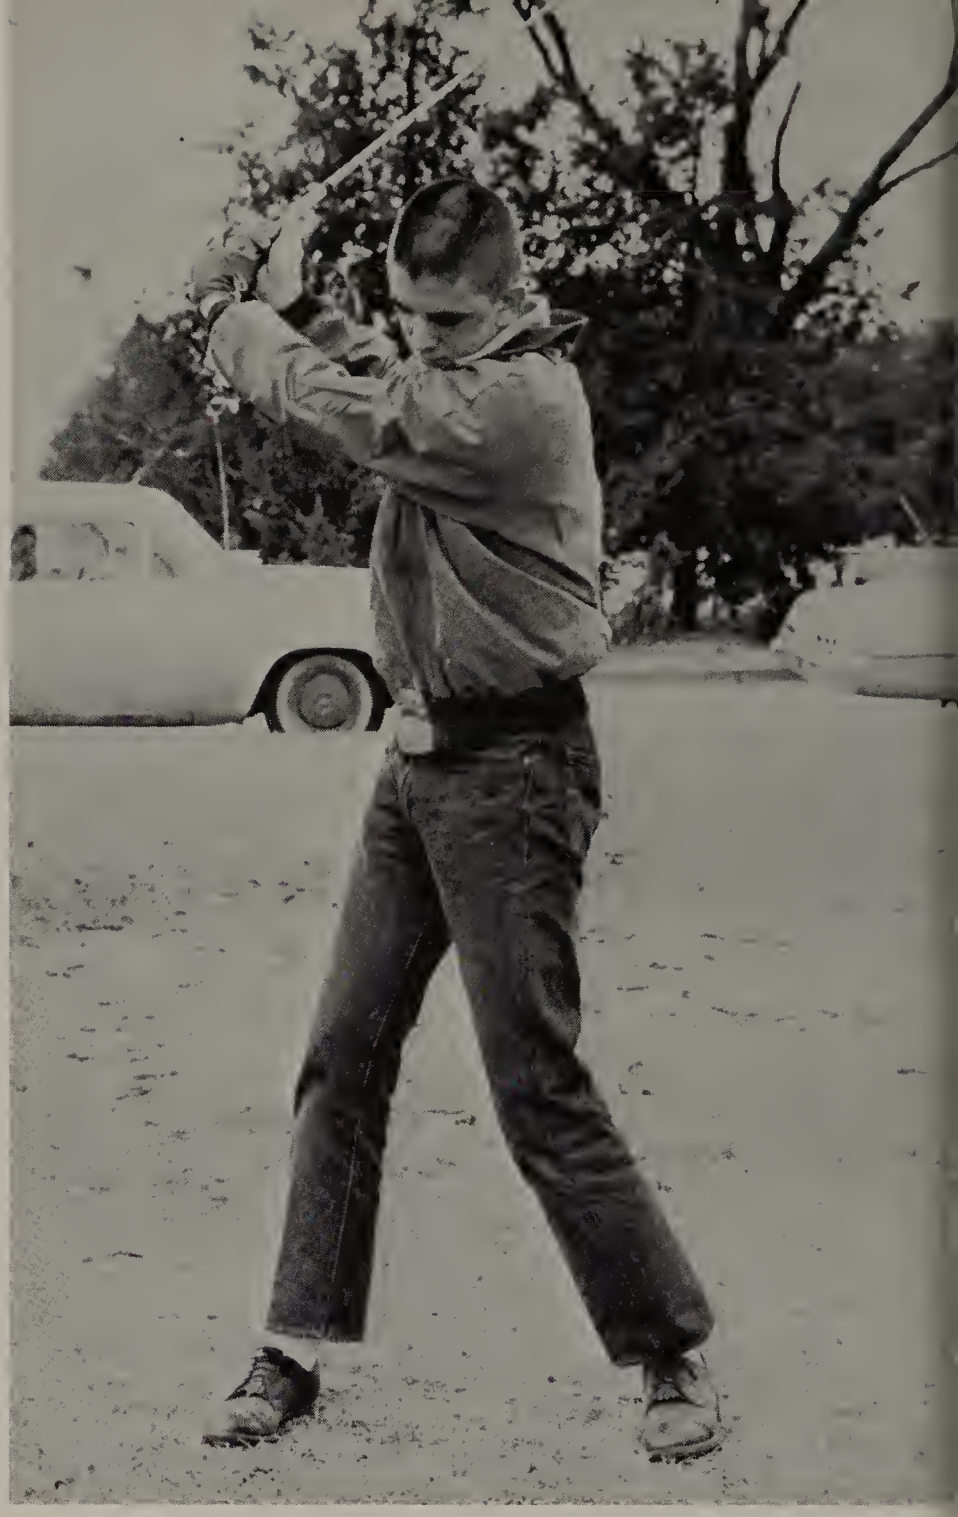
GOLFERS RETURN 3

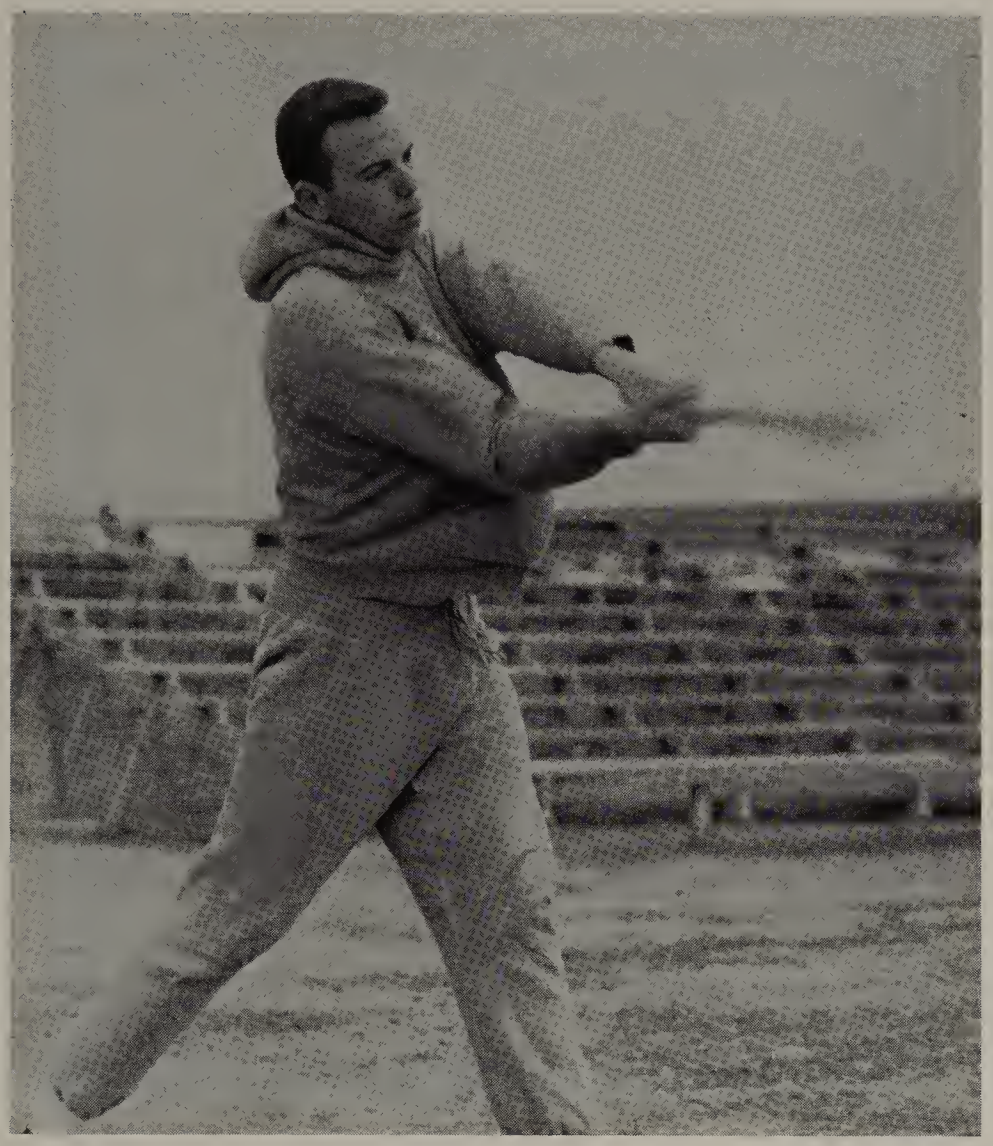
IN MID-FEBRUARY the 1963 golfers teed off in practice with hopes of a successful season. The only three returning lettermen—Mike Franklin, Keith Rariden, and Phil Hyre—carried much of the weight of the team due to the inexperience of the remaining squad. However, with hard work during practice, 15 boys who originally tried out for the golf squad faced their eight meet season with high hopes.



Mike Franklin carefully places the ball on the tee in preparation for a drive down the fairway.

Phil Hyre works for proper form before swinging through on a tee shot.

Keith Rariden studies a putt which could easily determine a match.



Steve Casey practices his swing as he looks toward the first game of the season.

Senior Steve Nobles shows the form which has made him one of the outstanding City League pitchers.

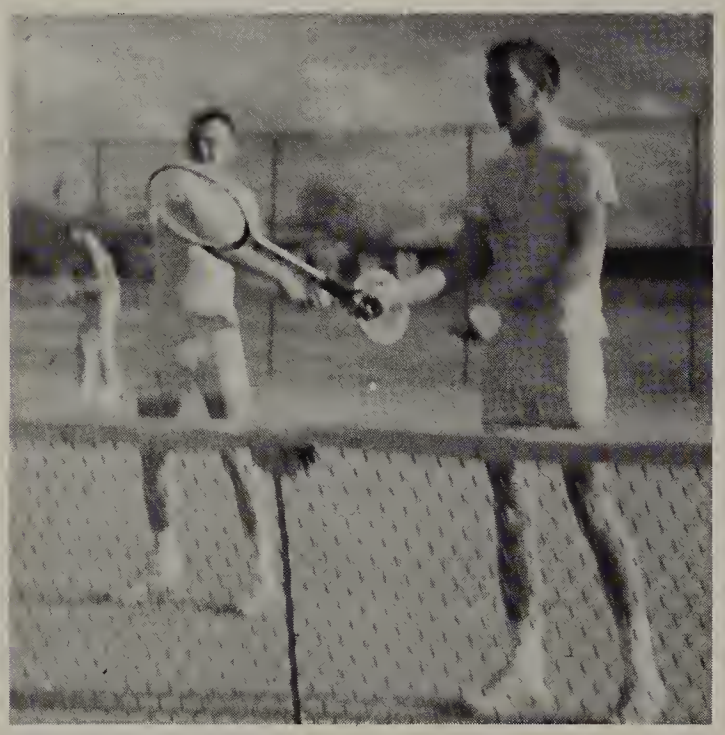
BASEBALL PROSPECTS PREDICTED AS GOOD

A base stealer finds a waiting glove as he attempts to slide into third safely.

AT THE BEGINNING of the season the baseball team, coached by J. D. Shouse, desired to duplicate last year's winning record. The team members relied on the experience which they gained during the 1962 season. Returning pitchers were perhaps the strongest asset to the team with senior letterman Steve Nobles leading the hurlers. Other returning senior lettermen were Steve Casey, Mickey Mosier, Ron Setchell, and Bob Norton.

Up and over the net to meet a new and better season are four returning lettermen—Bill Nath, Henry Buscher, David Dendurent, and Dennis Coley.

David Dendurent rushes the net in attempt to get an easily hit ball.



Phil McNeal begins a power-packed serve, his arm being beyond visual recognition.

Dennis Coley takes a tennis stance as he demonstrates a forehand shot.

6 RETURN TO TENNIS TEAM

THIS YEAR'S TENNIS squad was strengthened by six returning lettermen, including Robert Dudey, rated by some as the best in the city. At the beginning of the season, Coach Dennie Bretz predicted that this year's team would be the best that West has had for several years.

During the season the tennis team practiced mainly on the West courts, the different city games being played on the high school courts. The squad faced their first game with the North High Redskins, hoping for all-season victories.

Junior Jim Hignite gracefully glides through the air as he overcomes a hurdle.

Ron Adam and Gene Howerton work together in passing the baton for a relay.

Jim Walker executes near perfect form as he practices shot putting in preparation for the first meet.

SOPHS SPARK TEAM

Dennis McCabe, Delbert Hammond, and Gary Ledbetter present the usual position at the starting line for the 50-yard dash.

ALTHOUGH WEST HAS always been weak on the cinders, the 1963 track squad is sparked by many willing and hard-working sophomores. Senior Jim Walker, the only returning letterman, won several top honors last year in the discus and shot put.

Coached by Jerry Bupp and Duane Thomas, the team proved strongest in shot put.

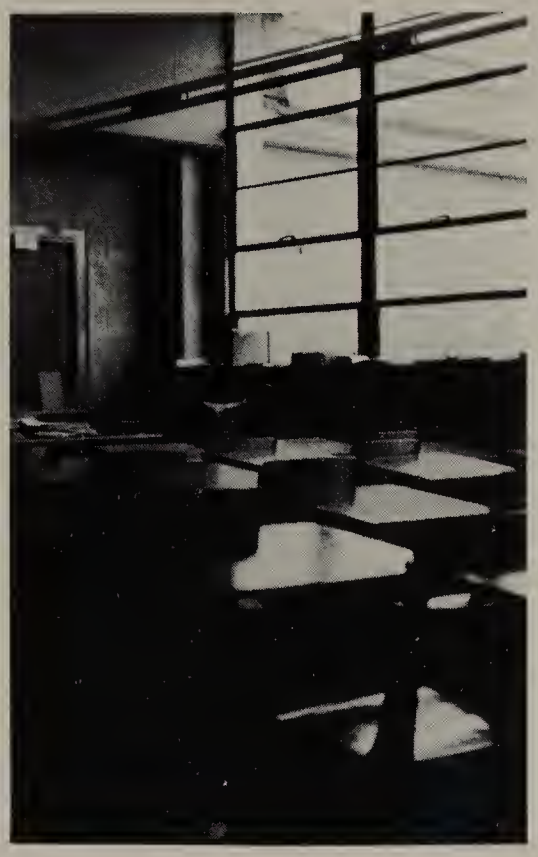
SEASONS END

(1) The enthusiastic Pep Club forms its traditional victory line as the Pioneers head for the side lines. (2) The last of the starting five against North hustles to the key as he is introduced. (3) Coach McNerney reveals an expression of concern as the team battles away on the court. (4) A West diver demonstrates a gainer during a pre-game warm up. (5) Come rain or shine, nothing keeps the West cheerleaders from their duties.

5



The first light of morning finds a still, quiet classroom, undisturbed by the happy sound of voices.

SCHOLARS

Anticipating Mr. Keith Sanborn's next statement, senior class officers Cathy Neff, vice president; Terry Brandon, president; and secretary, Ann Allsbury, take their official oath.

THEY CALLED US SENIORS! They watched our step. Forgetting that we were once green to the root and full of jealous envy, they looked to us. They listened to our ideas and even to our nonsense. They idolized our innumerable suggestions. Their eyes followed our steps to the music of our last high school dance and across the stage of our graduation. Perked ears bowed to our voices as our hearts sang for the last time "To you, our West High, we owe all our devotion." Their senses felt the tangled tightness of our last school day. Of our memories they were thinking. We were known as "tops"—as the leading class. Our memories will never be forgotten; neither will theirs, for THEY called us Seniors!

Ring-buying junior class officers Susan Taylor, vice president; Carol Gaston, president; and Jackie Ford, secretary, concentrate on the price of the rings.

TWO DOWN AND ONLY ONE TO GO.

Two years of fun and excitement, of fears and tears, and of new experiences; but, are we prepared to enter the third? Being juniors, we were "bugged" by the sophomores, tugged by the seniors. Our pride swelled as our own high school rings were slipped over our shaky knuckles. We were even more shaky as we performed in our class assembly before a crowd of 1700. We weren't at the "top"; then again, we weren't at the bottom. We were the second rung of the ladder—we were in the middle. Yet, next year we will be the guiding students of West High. We will be in the leading position. Our job as juniors will be past, and a new one will lie in our hands of responsibility. We have completed two; only ONE to go.

Ghosts, goblins, spooks, and West Highers had much in common at their senior-sponsored sock hop following the El Dorado football game.

Confetti-bound sophomore class officers are Linda Cain, vice president; Ann Griffin, president; and Diana Urquhart, secretary.

"NOW WHERE AM I?" . . . "Which way does this hall go?" . . . "Oh! Will I ever know my way around such an enormous school?" This was the attitude of a flocking amount of sophomores entering West High for the first time. "Now where am I?"—Now these sophomores are on the heels of their junior year. Now these sophomores are braided within the woven strands of our school. "Which way does this hall go?" Well, let's say that it has gone in various directions. Maybe it took these students into a field of study never before explored. Perhaps it led to new activities or to new friends. Yet, in each direction these halls were always open. They were open, and, yes, their way was found in such "an enormous school."

CONCLUSION

NOW THE YEAR is over and West High has concluded its first decade of life. For a short three months the math problem is solved, the hair styles assume a casual look, the athletic contests are stilled, and the laughter and headaches of school fade away to the joyous prospect of summer vacation while West returns to its shell.

The first phase of school is over for seniors as the protective folds of Pioneer life desert them. For them the web of high school is spun. For others, the fall of 1963 will bring again the problems, sweat and strain, and the joy of returning to West for another year. For them the web will gain more strands and their industry will supply them.

Silhouetted in the twilight, West appears almost deserted except for a few twinkling lights scattered throughout the building.

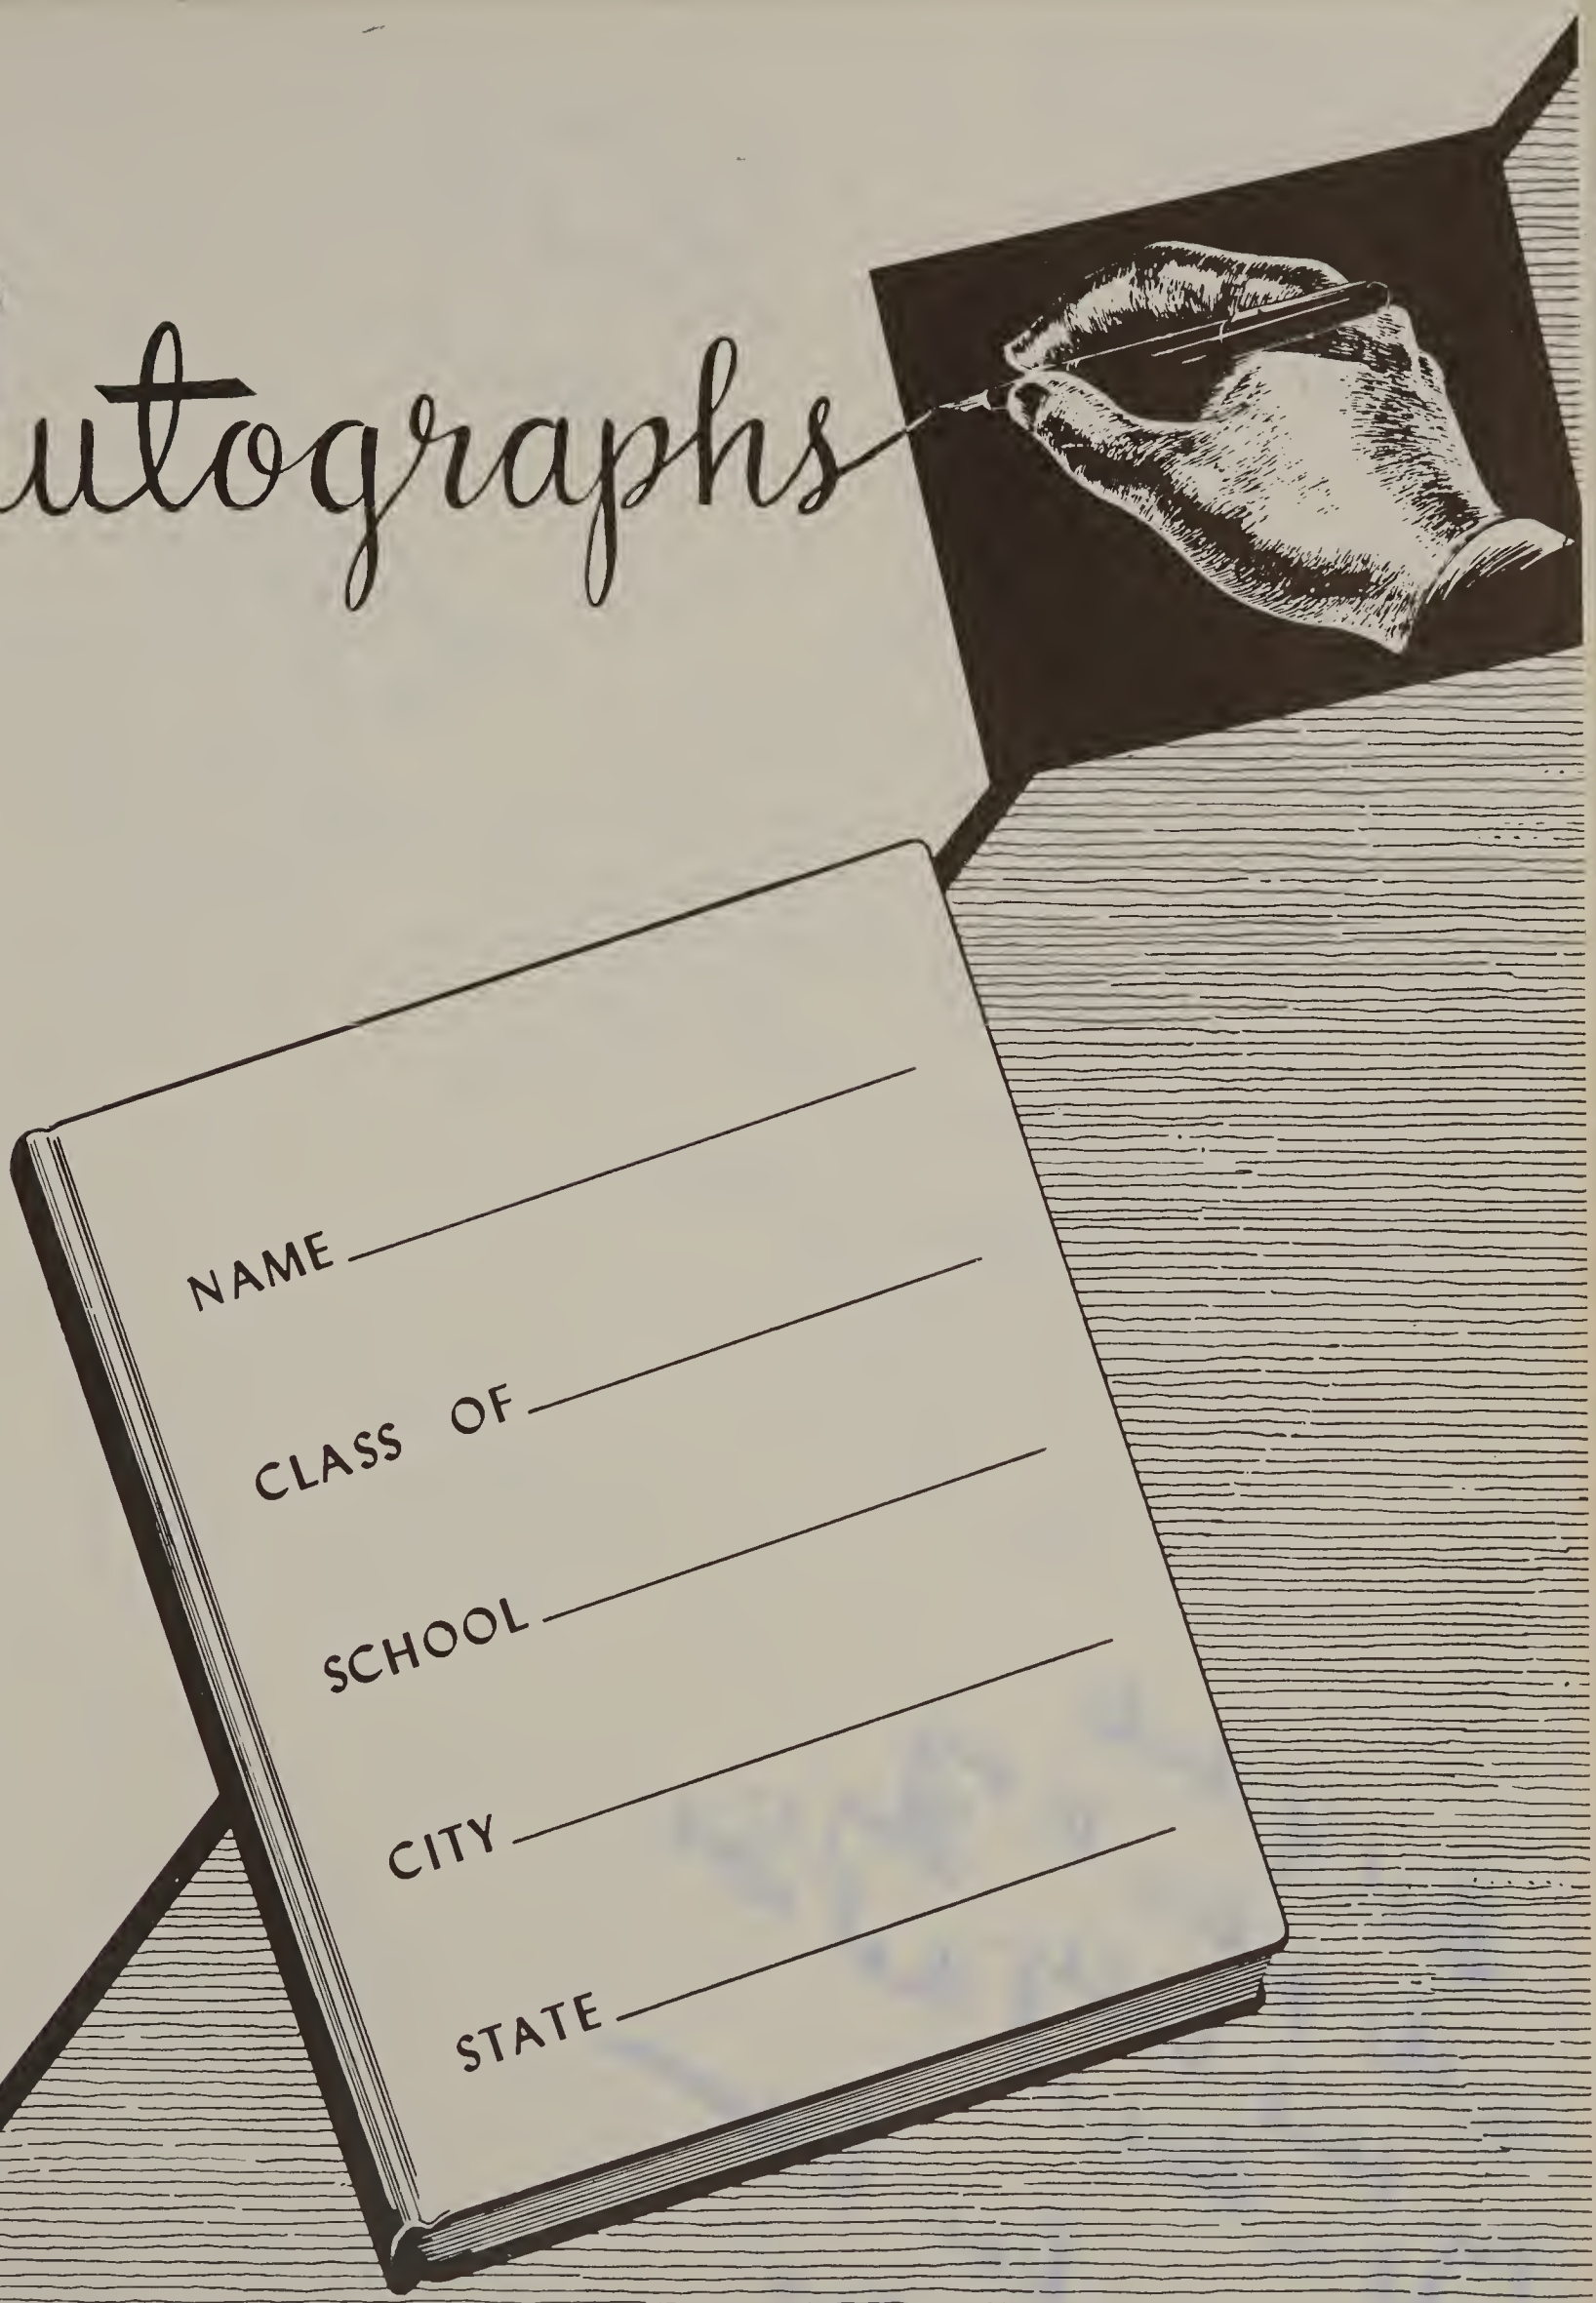
Autographs



Good luck
to you Bundy, especially in that easy sixth hour
class.

John Smith
"64"

For the 2nd year
Good Luck
Steve Green '64"

To the
Physics Brain-
Hope I may need
your help sept. 9th!
Charles Wright

It's a great physics student from a great one
Dick Roberts

Don't practise
the sax too much in the summer-your friends
claude

Richard Daley - 65

To a swell person who should talk some more

Phil Hart

Best of luck
in the future to my buddy. Stay
right in there on that Sax.

Earl Walker

To a real good guy.
Lots of luck in the future

Dave Eberman
'64"

Had a great time
in Physics
Class. Good luck in the future.

Dick Rogers

Good luck to the following guys
(all)

9 hours.

Good Luck
in the future (Especially in your physics test tomorrow)
John W. Shitlack
"65"

Best of luck to you, Randy. If you ever marry you'll have my sympathy. Have a good summer and please don't flunk physics. Success that's all you deserve.
Charles Whitlock

Dear Randy
Never forget the great times we had playing basketball
at Richards. Lots O Luck
Doug Baker

To a real swell
guy & had great
times in gym. . . '[illegible]
Kendall Wyatt

Best of luck
with your hopes for the future
Phil Fanning

Best of Luck
—Mark Duell

Randy
Remember
dear old Yearly
and crudy history
maybe 4 you'll be in my 4sort. class and it'll be rare.
3 years in a
Rathaus Farm

Lots of Luck.
Rolf von Menveldt

to a real great guy who will really succeed. Best of luck.

Don Baker
'63"

I'd write a longish poem here
With words and phrases many I'd write some thoughts to you tonight
But I just can't think of any!
Remember the fellow with the blank
expression...
Fred Curry

Randy, Jack
Best of Luck

Ronnie Cox - I'm trying to forget,
Still trying Baseball
Randy '64"

Randy -
You know what? I think you're awfully sweet, even if you are so quiet. Best of luck to a swell guy!
Kay Plumlee

To a real nice
guy (+ a smart one too)
Gordon Stowe

Randy -
to a real pal + a friend + have enjoyed
all year.
Your friend
(the nut)
Kenneth Simmons

Randy -
It has been nice knowing you
this year. Best of Luck
Pat Casey

To my favorite classmate, Thanks for being such a good friend, Randy. I hope to see you again in the future. Lots of Luck,

Bill Morland
'74

Hope you like band. I did like it under Darnell. I never did anyone who could endure Darnell and Brett like you have got a will power. See you next year. Good Luck Marty Rhoden

Randy,

Well, we had History together again this year. Do you think I'll be lucky enough to be in the same Government class next year? I hope so. Have a good time this summer.
